THE PARISH RECORD

No. 16 WOMELSDORF, PA. JANUARY, 1921

PARISH RECORD No. 16 greets you. It wishes you God's richest blessings for body and soul now and forever. This is not an ordinary wish, but a real prayer for what all of us need, especially at present.

The Christian Church has been on trial since it was born. It has gone through many fires. God chastens it to keep it pure and to make it humble. For six years we have seen hatred, war, greed, suffering on every side. All this, after the Church has preached and sought to practice the very opposite for twenty centuries. A bleeding world rightly accuses the Church of having partly failed, but it also clings to it now as its only hope for the future. The call of this shattered world, through the Church, comes to every man, woman and child to help make the world safe for CHRIST.

A great wave of crime is sweeping over our land. Men who, some time, at God's altar renounced the devil and all his works are today helping to make this Christian nation a hot-bed of crime and vice. Let us watch, pray and work that the good name of our Church and country and our own good name be not crushed to earth never to rise again.

During the past year the Womelsdorf Parish has sought in a regular manner to perform the duties which belong to the Church of God.

The annual meeting of the Parish was held on Good Friday at the parsonage at Womelsdorf. Routine business was transacted. Mr. Albert F. Lengel and Mr. Ralph Schoener were elected as delegates to the meetings of Synod and Conference. A committee, consisting of Albert F. Lengel, John Brown, Levi F. Goldman and Morris Long, was charged with attending to necessary repairs at the parsonage.

The Second Annual Visitation of the Churches as planned by the United Lutheran Church in America was held in Zion, Womelsdorf, and Trinity, Robesonia with good results. Many members have promised to be more regular in their attendance; some have increased their weekly contributions; new members have been added to both Church and Sunday School.

Our weekly Church paper, "The Lutheran," should be read in every family. Take a trial subscription for six months at one dollar. Just what the whole family needs.

The Orphans' Home Society at St. Daniel's divided $115.00 between the Topton Orphans' Home and the Good Shepherd Home at Allentown. The Church and Sunday School at Womelsdorf also sent $86.00 as a Christmas present to Topton. Both of these Homes are taking care of children of our congregations. Send them something now and remember them in your will.

You have read and heard much about many children starving in Europe. The pastor will be glad to forward any money that you feel inclined to give for this worthy cause.

On November 14th the pastor took part in the services at the unveiling of a Church Service Flag in his home congregation, at Bath, Pa. Seven young men from this congregation of less than 300 members have entered the ministry. Six of these have become ministers in the last thirteen years. With many vacant pulpits, young men should consider seriously and prayerfully before they decide not to obey the command of Christ, "Go and preach."

During the year an effort was made to raise $500,000.00 for Muhlenberg College at Allentown. All the congregations of the Synod, 583 in number, were asked to raise certain amounts. The result was that $400,000.00 of this money was raised. The Womelsdorf Parish was asked to raise $2,758.00. Of this amount $1,952.23 was raised. In St. Daniel's 50 men were asked to see the members. Nearly every one did his full duty and $891.23 was turned in. Of this amount a friend, Mr. Michael A. Gruber, gave the largest amount, $150.00. The goal was $1,416.00. At Womelsdorf, one evening after services, a handful of members subscribed $630.00 of the $710.00 asked. In the Host congregation the pastor, with Mr. Albert F. Lengel and Mr. Ralph Schoener, called on the members. Two hundred and fifty-three dollars was collected. The amount asked for was $456.00. It was impossible to see all the members. Those not seen are hereby asked to give to the pastor whatever they want to give. It is not too late. At Trinity, Robesonia, after a service, the members went over the top, subscribing more than the $176.00 asked.

The pastor attended the sessions of the United Lutheran Church Convention held in Washington, D. C., beginning October 19. While at Washington the pastor stayed with Mr. John H. Sunday, a member of the Host congregation. The convention was a great success in proving that the United Lutheran Church was really a UNITED body.
